

My experience to Singapore

When the journey starts and we headed towards the airport , it was a great fun and my first experience for abroad begins. After check in we get to know that our flight was late . Then there I get to know almost all my co-travellers and mentor. After some time we boarded the plane and said goodbye to India for five days . While landing to Singapore , I saw the ocean which was looking very beautiful and we finally landed . Then we had breakfast in Little India and then visited Global Indian International School which was very beautiful and huge. Then we rested in hotel for some time and then went for Night Safari . There were many animals and we also saw fire show. We went to hotel for rest and we went for city tour . I was amazed to hear Daniel Uncle, that a men could climb a 72 storey building in 7 minutes and in few seconds . The gardens near the merlion is beautiful . Merlion is also very beautiful statue . Then we start boat riding which was very fun . From Singapore flyer , I was able to see almost whole Singapore . Then we visited Garden By The Bay . I was able to see different verities of plants , flowers . The water fall was beautiful . Then we saw a music show where we saw different mixtures of different colours . Next day we visited Universal Studio . The rides was awesome . It give me an rare experience . I will never forget these rides . My feet was swollen that day and teachers helped me a lot . They provide me medicine and bandaged it. Next day it relief me a lot . Then we visited newwater where we see how Singapour manages its water supply. We saw a video , played some games and know more about new water plant. The view from cable ride was very beautiful . The aquerium was unbeliveable . Some aninals are above my head and some are below my feet . And i was able to see many varity of fishes , octopus . There was also many crabs , seahorses etc We also visited beach and I also collect seashells . Then we see a show named wings of the time. On that day we visited science center and do many things there which was very interesting and saw a show as well . and we headed towards airport and our journey finishes and the memories remain forever. We meet our parents and say goodbye to my new friends and mentors.
